ADDITIONAL WAR NEWS.

STATUS OF THE WAR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 22.—Another day has gone, and neither one side or the other, Germany nor the allies, lay claim to any decisive outcome in the battle of the Aisne, where the supreme conflict of the war, up to the present time, has long been raging.

The engagement, taken as a whole, along its entire line, seems to be partaking of the nature of a siege. Both sides continue to hold a majority of their strongly entrenched positions. The German lines, for one hundred miles, are described as virtually a continuation of forts and heavy entrenchments. The artillery fire exchanges go on day and night, and under their cover are sorties of infantry. Counter attack follows attack and occasionally one side or the other gains ground. It would appear to-day that nothing but a successful flanking movement could have any serious effect on either army. But neither front has been broken, and neither side has been outflanked.

Rheims appears to be the center of the most persistent fighting. It is between the lines of battle and the city has suffered heavily. The Germans are described as most anxious to recapture this position.

The French official announcement issued at Paris this afternoon avers that incessant German attacks delivered yesterday, September 21, have been unsuccessful, and that the Germans have been compelled to retire at more than one point. The French took many German prisoners.

The latest official communication from Berlin issued Monday night says the Germans have captured the hill positions at Caronne and occupy the village of Betheny, three miles outside of Rheims to the north. This announcement describes the Germans also as attacking the strong forts south of Verdun.

The military expert of the London Times gives position to the French forces on the left which, if correct, shows a remarkable advance along the flank of the German right wing, under command of Gen. Von Kluck.

HOME TELEPHONE NOTES.

Representatives of the Cumberland Telephone Company have been engaged in Paris circulating a petition among its telephone subscribers in which it asks to be allowed to increase its telephone rates on business and residence telephones in Paris.

Representatives of the Company claim to be holding out the inducement to subscribers that better service will be given them if the rates are increased, as it will enable the Company to install a new "central energy system" in Paris.

According to a statement made by an official of the Company no effort will be made to have one telephone system in Paris, as the U. S. Government will not permit the Cumberland Company to absorb a competing line.

The merchants in Paris, or a considerable proportion of them, at least, are of the opinion that the Cumberland Company is charging full high for its service in Paris, and that it should be required to install up-to-date appliances for the subscribers and give good service at the present rate.

The Home Telephone Company in Paris is giving satisfactory service to its subscribers at a less rate per phone than is charged by the Cumberland Company, and the Home Company already has in operation in Paris the "central energy system."

It might be well to recall conditions as they were and as they are at present in Carlisle and Nicholas County, that Parisians may be fully informed on telephone conditions in other counties.

A few years ago the Cumberland Telephone Company had all of the telephone business in Carlisle and Nicholas County. The charges were $2.75 per month for the business phone and $1.65 for the residence phones.

The Home Telephone Company entered the field and equipped an up-to-date "central energy system" in Carlisle at a reduced rate per phone, and to-day, it is said, the Home Telephone has in excess of 700 telephone subscribers in Carlisle and Nicholas County, while the Cumberland Telephone Company, has, it is alleged, about fifty-five subscribers.

If the Cumberland Telephone Company persists in its efforts to increase the telephone rates in Paris, will it have an experience that will be as disastrous as its venture in Carlisle and Nicholas County?

Splendid Medicine Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, No. 503 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Over Ten Years Ago.

"I would not be without Peruna. Although it was over ten years ago that I first gave you my testimonial, I am of the same opinion as when I wrote it, and give you the privilege to use it as you see fit. I still use Peruna when I think it necessary. I am recommending it to my neighbors whenever a chance occurs."

Soldiers' Ammunition.

In the United States army the infantry goes to battle with 100 rounds of ammunition on him and 120 rounds per man in two bandoliers in wagons not far behind him. The German soldier carries 120 rounds, the French 120, the Austrian 120, the British soldier 100, the Russian 120, the Italian 162, the Japanese 150 and the Swiss 120. In battalion and company carts near at hand the ammunition, added to that carried by the men brings the supply of cartridges up to an average of about 300 per rifle.

Host's Bad Break.

High society has its crude personalities, if a story in one of the magazines is true. At a dinner given to the famous pianist, Liszt, his host, Count Ludolf, right in the middle of Liszt's most exquisite playing, "said in a loud voice, 'If anyone wishes to have a game of whist, there are tables in the other room.'" Liszt, says the narrator, stopped short, but as no one moved he consented amiably to remain at the piano. The amount of wine that had been consumed by Liszt's host on this occasion is not stated.

The Hypocrite.

The divine punishment of hypocrisy is fatigue. Those, in Shakespeare's fine simile, whose hearts are all as false as stairs of sand, must really have much of that exhausted sensation that comes of walking through sand when it is loose and deep. The hypocrite is that unluckiest of actors who is never out of a job.—G. K. Chesterton.

Had Right to Remain Aloof.

"The Declaration of Independence states that all men are born free and equal, I believe." "Something of the sort." "Then why do you hold your self so aloof?" "My dear man, I'm descended from one of its signers."

Man's Hardest Duty.

A man's best desires are always the index and measure of his possibilities; and the most difficult duty that a man is capable of doing is the duty that above all he should do.—Charles H. Brent.

He Sold It.

"Have you found a customer for your gramophone yet?" "Oh, yes—I played it for 12 hours on end, and all the neighbors clubbed together and bought it from me."

THE PRUDENT MAN BEGAN EARLY TO BANK HIS MONEY—NOW HE ENJOYS IT.

A New York theatrical man with an income of $25,000 a year went to Wall Street with $20,000 and tripped it. His head was turned—in a few months theatres closed—income ceased and Wall Street had finished his spare change. The EXTRAVAGANCE his family had been used to soon drove him to the extremity of mortgaging property and sacrificing pet securities. Today he is BROKE.
